Sunday School Workers
to Visit County Schools

On the first Sunday in August, 1920, the following citizens and Sunday school workers of Louisa will visit some Sunday school in Lawrence county for the purpose of showing their interest in the work also for the purpose of a friendly visit, to receive suggestions, looking toward the betterment of the cause, and finally to keep alive the fine Sunday school sentiment in Lawrence county, that has resulted in making this county the leading Sunday school county of Kentucky, east of the city of Covington, it being an actual fact that Lawrence county has more Sunday schools in active operation than any county in Kentucky, along the Ohio and Big Sandy, from Covington to the Cumberland Mountains.

Here is the list of visitors and the Sunday school they will visit:
A. O. Carter, Fallsburg; J. F. Davis, Lowmansville; H. B. Hewlett, Horseford; J. P. Gaffin, Potter; W. E. Queen, Estate; Robert Dixon, Charley; John B. Riffe, Walbridge; F. M. GIRLS! MAKE A LEMON BLEACH

Lemons Whiten and Double
Beauty of the Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White which can be had at any drug store, shake well and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach for few cents. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use lemon juice to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rose-white complexion. Lemons have always been used as a trouble, sunburn and tan remover. Make this up and try it.
